Hi Hollie

Further to my e-mail attaching the auction pack, my client has e-mailed to confirm the following :-

“Just a correction to the Property Information Form.
I discovered a water meter below a false panel under the sink.”

Can you just put a copy of this e-mail with the pack.

Kind regards

Gareth

• Coronavirus update: Whilst our offices remain closed to visitors, we assure you that we are continuing to maintain our usual level of service and are making every effort to avoid any disruption. We are enabled to work from home when required, ensuring that service levels are maintained. We encourage all our clients to contact us via email or telephone as meetings will only take place when there is no viable alternative. However, Clients must still attend to provide identification and this can only be when a prior appointment has been made. Card payments will only be taken over the telephone. Please note that you can continue to use our letterbox as this is monitored throughout the day and we are happy to receive post in this way. We hope that you appreciate these precautionary measures and thank you for your cooperation.
